

WOMEN SHOW ABILITY TO MEET MANY EMERGENCIES
WHEN TEST OF WAR PUTS
ALL CLASSES ON THEIR METTLE

WE ALL KNOW HOW MEN'S ACTIVITIES HAVE BEEN IN-VADED, BUT HERE ARE ODD FIELDS OF INTERESTING
ENDEAVOR

"Colors," at women's training
camp, Narragansett Pier.

Underwood & Underwood.

Maria Labia, known to New York operagoers, suspected in Milan of being a spy.

Hon. Victoria Sackville West, whose trained bear aids Red Cross funds.

Photo: Paul Thompson

Not content with nursing British wounded, the Hon.
Margaret Amherst
amuses them,
too.
Copyright, Central News.

Maria, Rumania's Queen,
with Princess Ileana, is busy as a ruler.

This doesn't look like work, but Miss Susan Fish Dresser does much for war relief.
Copyright, International Film Service.

Daring French women soldering copper bands on loaded shells with acetylene torches